RHONDDA CYNON TAF

with the support of

the Rhys Davies Trust

A collection of Creative Writing from Year 6

Introduction

Timeline is a creative writing project with year 6 pupils from Rhondda Cynon Taf. In June 2021, eight primary schools in the county took part in a series of live virtual workshops and pieces of writing were created by the pupils based on the theme of 'time travel'.

The project was co-ordinated by Literature Wales, funded by the Rhys Davies Trust and supported by Rhondda Cynon Taf County Borough Council. The workshops were developed and delivered by Lucy Mohan with support from Nerida Bradley. The magazines were designed by Lucy Mohan.

The schools involved in the project were: Craig-Yr-Hesg Primary School, Cwmaman Primary School, Cwmclydach Primary School, Llanharan Primary School, Maerdy Community Primary School, Miskin Primary School, Perthcelyn Community Primary School and Rhigos Primary School.

Literature Wales is the national company for the development of literature. Our vision is a Wales where literature empowers, improves, and brightens lives. We are a registered charity, and work to inspire communities, develop writers and celebrate the literary culture of Wales. We facilitate, fund, and directly deliver a literary programme across Wales.

Dear Reader,

Journey through time with Craig-Yr-Hesg Primary School's Year 6 class, as we travel from the past all the way to potential futures.

Students chose to write either a poem, a short story or the opening of a story.

Here's what they came up with...

Happy reading!

Three Pirates of Three

by Caiden Headford

There once was a ship,
a ship out at sea
and on that ship
were pirates of three.
Those three pirates
would sail out at sea
to see what three men would see.
They would find doubloons
for more sets of tea for tea parties of three.

Landon and the Mysteries

by Diane Carzano

It was still the year 2018, and it was a typical day...

Until he noticed something weird and moved closer to it. He decided to touch it because he was so irresponsible. It pulled him in, so he assumed it was a man-made object.

For a tiny moment, he believed he was hallucinating. But it dragged him in, and he had no way of stopping it.

It was a rainy and stormy day. The place was unfamiliar to him. He was perplexed when he realized he wasn't in his hometown; he was shivering and terrified.

Landon looked everywhere around him and realized the trees were coloured black (I wonder why). He saw skeletons. He slowly moved backwards and hit a tree, then the tree turned into ashes since his skin touched it. He was taken aback by all of the information. Then he realized he had travelled into the past!

He requested the skeletons for assistance since he wasn't afraid of them, but he afterwards saw spiders and webs on a house. (You can guess what happens next...)

He fled, then he accidentally hit a human girl, only to discover afterwards that she was the ruler of the country (I wonder who she is...).

They dated, Landon was now 23 and she was 22. Landon propose to her and they got married.

They had a happy life and both of them now ruled the country of the 1760's.

Time Travelling

by Lily-May Gallo

Time Travelling

Where will I go?

A place not called home,
where the waters are blue the grass is green
just me and my brother that's where I will be.

In a magical forest far away
When I came and dream that day.
Me and my bro that's where I be.
But when it's time to say goodbye,
we close are eyes and say goodbye.
Then I wake up in my bed and realised that it was all just a dream

Love you Bro

Back to the Past

by Isabelle Frazer

Back to the past when nobody knows.

Where would you go?

Back to the past when time was old,
to see everybody who has past and grown.

In world war II where men would fight
Dying and living to make things right.
Finding a friend who has ran away in fear
The trenches are dark and Muddy OH DEAR!

Scared of dying loves to fight.

It is raining like mad over their heads

Back to the past when nobody knows.

Where would you go???

Over 25 million of friends have died to make things

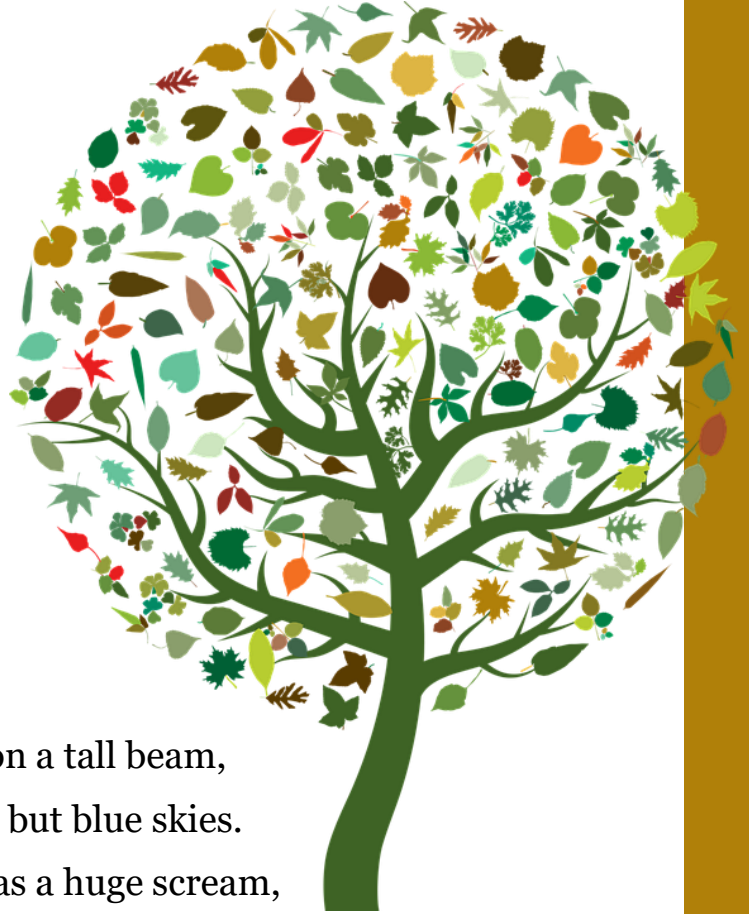

Right in the world.

Always looking over their shoulders to make sure they don't get shot.

Loving and liking friends all dying.

The Tree

By Paris

Ellie was balancing on a tall beam,
she could see nothing but blue skies.
Then suddenly, there was a huge scream,
She was in for a huge surprise.

She glanced below to see,
A young girl sitting on a tree.
Ellie didn't know what to do,
But other than go to help.
Before she could, she heard a great big YELP!

As she made her way to the tall tree,
She looked up to find no one there.
Where was the young girl?
Ellie clambered among the debris,
the branch was just suspending.

The Mystery Kidnapper

by Meghan Knape

If you like interesting books and don't mind any mention of wolves and mystery the book is just for you.

It was another day in South Wales, Tenby. The sun was shining and sparkling like a pearl. Alina was watching the morning news. Then another person had come on and announced that another person had gone MISSING!! Alina decided she would go and see her best friend Ellie, the wolf, to tell her the big news.

Ellie was peacefully reading her book.

“Ellie have you seen the news??? Another person went missing,” explained Alina.

“WHAT ANOTHER?” questioned Ellie in surprise.

Alina was thinking and then said, “This has gone way to far. I’m going to find out who exactly is causing them”.

“Are you sure about this,” replied Ellie reluctantly.

“Yes, I’m sure. Come on off to the woods we go. I know I hate the woods, but this might be our only chance to solve this mystery.”

“Ok then, I guess,” Mumbled Ellie.

With that away they went into the woods...

Best Friends

by Sienna Roberts

We are best friends at last,
we will never break a bound between us,
best friends will you ever break a best friend promise?

Does not matter who you play with or where you are,
we are BFFL no matter what,
meet you in heaven,
because you and I know we are going to heaven,
You're a Leo and I'm a Taurus.

We keep saying what our star signs are,
because we are stars in the sky,
love you to the moon and back,
been best friend's since we were 2 years old.

CRAIG -YR- HESG

Craig-Yr-Hesg where the learning starts and year 6 ends.
The play ground is beautiful where veg is growing.
It's time for us to out and move and time to get in to the Ponty High groove!
